DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1,3,5,8,11,14-16, 23-25, 28-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Rotzoll US 5,739,730.

The detailed rejection presented in the office action of 02/06/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Albon US2003/0048145 in view of Prakash et al 5,648,744 and Rotzoll 5,739,730.

The detailed rejection is presented in the office action of 02/06/2007.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 5/4/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the disclosure of Rotzoll, which shows at least 6 variable capacitors (varactors), cannot meet the claim language including a varactor circuit including a plurality of varactors and a capacitor circuit including a capacitor circuit, and argues that a capacitor is not a type of varactor. This is moot, because the position which the examiner relied upon was that a varactor is a type of capacitor, not visa versa. The examiner as the word capacitor is broader than varactor, it includes varactor within its scope, so the varactors of the prior art do indeed meet the language for capacitors as varactors are a type of capacitor (a point never challenged by applicant).

Art Unit: 2815

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
